

The Gateway

FLASH BULLETIN . . .

Vol. 26 Z-410

Omaha University, Omaha, Nebr., Oct. 24

No. 5A

BEATRICE KAY AND COURTNEY TO GIVE BENEFIT

SHOW IN AUDITORIUM TODAY AT THREE

Beatrice Kay, famous gay nineties girl, Del Courtney and several members of his orchestra will give a benefit performance to aid the Hayrack Victims' Fund today at 3 o'clock in the university Auditorium.

The program is open to all students who are not in class at that hour. Come and contribute what you can.

The entertainment was arranged through the efforts of Joe Baker, president of the Student Council, and Harold Poff, editor of the Gateway. Baker and Poff interviewed Miss Kay in her dressing room at 11 o'clock this morning.

When asked to entertain for the benefit fund, Miss Kay said, "I'd be glad to. Whenever I hear of a disaster I'm always glad to help."

Beatrice Kay and the Courtney orchestra headline the stage bill at the Orpheum Theatre where they start a weeks' engagement today. They are making their appearance at the university between afternoon shows at the theatre.

HOCKEY MEETING SCHEDULED FOR WEDNESDAY

Athletic Director Virg Yelkin will hold an important hockey meeting Wednesday at noon in the men's locker room. A university hockey team will enter the Omaha Amateur Hockey League if enough men show up for the meeting and for practice slated to get under way Nov. 10.

The sport will be considered extramural. Several members of the team which played the Amateur League All-Stars last season are back.

A three-man board will organize and manage the team. Yelkin will be assisted by Jack Sandler, Radio Station KOWH's sportscaster who assisted last season, and a team captain, who will be selected later.

A MATTER OF CONSCIENCE

Don't think your help isn't needed!

Your nickel is as good as the next man's million if you can't afford more. But be honest with yourself; carefully consider your relative blessings and give with a spirit of kindness.

You will be doubly repaid if you should purchase a ticket to the Hayrack Benefit Dance, not only in the form of good entertainment but in the warmth of cooperative sympathy for the accident's victims.

The Hayrack Fund is extremely worthy and its purpose is well defined; to give a little help to those who have suffered more than their share. We can do little to eliminate the anguish of the last two weeks, but we can share the burden of terrific hospital and medical expenses.

Your help will be greatly appreciated.

ALL STUDENTS URGED TO BUY DANCE TICKETS

Have you bought your dance ticket yet?

Today is the last opportunity for students to buy tickets for the University of Omaha's all student Hayrack Benefit Dance to be held at Peony Park tonight.

Tickets are on sale for $1.20 per person at a table opposite the Auditorium. Even though some students may be unable to attend the dance they are urged to purchase tickets. Dancers may come stag, in couples or in groups.

Lee Barron's orchestra will play for dancing from 9 to midnight. The ballroom has been donated by Mr. Malec, owner of Peony Park.

DANCE AT PEONY TONIGHT AT 9 . . . . .